ABOUT EATING EUROPE

Eating Europe Tours was founded in 2011 by American native, Kenny Dunn, who moved to Rome in 2008. Kenny loved showing off his neighborhood to visiting friends, and introducing them to his favorite restaurants and shops. These informal culinary strolls later became the Taste of Testaccio Food Tour with a focus on promoting real food, real people and real neighborhoods. It was so successful that in 2013, the Twilight Trastevere Food Tour and the Trastevere for Foodies Tour were launched, and together became Eating Italy Food Tours. Today, Eating Europe is the expert in European food tours with offerings in London, Amsterdam, Prague and Florence . Eating Italy also hosts an Italian wine and food stroll in Rome and a cooking class in Florence.

ROME

FOOD TOURS:

Taste of Testaccio Food Tour

Testaccio is the original foodie neighborhood of Rome and where cucina romana (roman cuisine) was born. Walk and eat your way through the streets of Testaccio to experience Rome like a local.

Testaccio Supper Stroll

Our movable feast through Testaccio is perfect for the adventurous foodie, looking to try something that pushes the boundaries beyond pizza and pasta.

Trastevere for Foodies

With its narrow cobblestone streets and laneways, Trastevere is the quintessential Roman neighborhood. It resembles a small village with its timeless, artisan shops serving the same local families for generations.

Twilight Trastevere Food Tour

Trastevere's ivy-coated streets come alive at night. This is where Romans choose to eat with their families and where young Romans go for nightlife. This old quartiere features some of the city's most historic and locally loved places.

Vatican Food and Wine Tour

Tour the Prati neighborhood, just next to the Vatican and uncover locally loved places serving up a mix of traditional Roman classics and some of the city's newest food trends like Trapizzino and Italian craft beer.

Historic Rome Sunday Tour

Take a Sunday food tour where you can eat your way through the ancient city center and discover some of Rome's most important sights along the way.

CULINARY ACTIVITY:

Food and Wine Stroll

An unforgettable evening that is both a progressive dinner and an entree into Italian wines and wine and food pairing techniques with Eating Italy's Master Sommelier Marco Lori.

FLORENCE

FOOD TOURS:

Florence Sunset Tour

Sip down cocktails at aperitivo o'clock in the Santo Spirito neighborhood. Savor artisanal truffle cheese and watch a live demonstration of how to cook the ultimate Florentine steak, the Bistecca alla Fiorentina.

The Other Side of Florence tour

Walking through Oltrarno and learn how to make Italian cantucci (cookies), sample the local salami, and experience the neighborhood's Bohemian vibe – full of students, artists and lively culture.

CULINARY ACTIVITY:

Florence Cooking Class

Join an expert local chef in a Tuscan home for a hands-on cooking experience. Walk the streets to buy the ingredients from small, family-run shops and market stalls, pick herbs from the rooftop terrace and begin preparing a feast.

LONDON

FOOD TOURS:

East End Food Tour

The East End is a tapestry of diverse cultures, mouth-watering cuisines and fascinating history. Visit favorite local haunts, meet the owners, and explore street art that few tourists have an opportunity to enjoy.

Twilight Soho Food Tour

Discover one of London's oldest and most diverse neighborhoods. Learn how to make the perfect Gin & Tonic, enter Soho's exclusive underground dim sum cocktail lounge, and savor homemade Mexican tacos.

Brick Lane – Flavours of India and Beyond

Participants will indulge in the many different flavours of “Banglatown” while experiencing dynamic street art, authentic Bangladeshi food shops and exploring the link between India, Bangladesh, Pakistan and Britain.

London Docks - Historic Pubs and Classic Grub Tour

The tour takes guests to old pirates & artists hangouts one historic pub at a time and serves up some of London's best craft brews and finest pub grub.

AMSTERDAM

FOOD TOURS:

Jordaan Food and Canal Tour

The Jordaan is one of the city's most sought after neighborhoods, full of specialty shops and restaurants. Leave the tour with a taste of Dutch culinary traditions and a glimpse at the area's community. The tour includes a 1-hour private boat ride on Amsterdam's famous world-heritage canals.

Jordaan Walking Tour

Dig deep into this 17th-century neighborhood, just off the beaten path and visit shops and cafes that have been running for generations. Walk through the unique cultural and historical sights of the Jordaan and enjoy a dozen delicious Dutch tastings.

PRAGUE

FOOD TOURS:

Prague Food Tour

Hop cobblestone to cobblestone from one gourmet treasure to the next. Get a glimpse of authentic Czech culture, learn about the country during the time of communism, and taste some of Prague's culinary delicacies – from gingerbread to sauerkraut soup.

Brews and Views

Discover Prague's beer gardens and bars, getting a true taste of the nation's favorite drink. Sample everything from light Czech pilsners to little-known local craft beers.

Supper Stroll from Prague Castle

Spend a magical evening enjoying the mystery of this lesser-known, medieval quarter of Prague found around the foothills of Prague Castle. Explore secret wine cellars, backstreet bistros and tiny, family-run cafés, to savor Prague's best food and drink
